

Sayyid Al-Hakeem praises Taza's sacrifices, recalls religious authority's fatwa in achieving victory over ISIS

During His Eminence's tour in Kirkuk governorate, and in the Taza of steadfastness and sacrifice, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met with a gathering of sheiks, dignitaries, and intellectuals, praising the stand and the constellation of martyrs, calling for pride in the history of this city, which exceeds its geographical borders.

His Eminence recalled the role of the supreme religious authority and its fatwa, which overturned the equation and liberated the land when tribal people from everywhere answered the call of the fatwa and hastened to their country's and religion's triumph, calling to adhere to this approach and familiarize generations with the sacrifices made so that they know that the current state of stability would not have been without the blood of the martyrs who bled in the fight against dictatorship, confronting terrorism, and building Iraq.
