

Sayyid Al-Hakeem: The budget represents an economic tributary and will move the wheel of development

During his visit to Kirkuk governorate, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met a large gathering of the Turkmen component, in a program hosted by Mr. Hassan Tuan, the head of the Turkmen Front, stressing the importance of this component as the third national component in Iraq, recalling their sacrifices in the fight against dictatorship and confronting terrorism.

Sayyid Al-Hakeem expressed his agreement with the Turkmen demands to obtain their fair representation, stressing the continuation of the demand to reach full rights in cooperation with the other components.

His Eminence called on the Turkmen brothers to unite ranks and coordinate positions to obtain representation commensurate with their status and roles, praising the coexistence of components in Kirkuk and citing the presence of components in social, political, and religious events.

H.E. reiterated that the success in Kirkuk is a success throughout Iraq, holding everyone responsible for maintaining the achieved security stability at all levels, and also clarified that the upcoming budget represents an important tributary to moving the Iraqi economy because of its role in moving projects and the wheel of development in general.

Sayyid Al-Hakeem pointed out the importance of facing the economic challenge through clear visions, realistic projects, and a competent administrative team, and also stressed the fight against corruption, preparing for the upcoming elections and program-based competition
