

Sayyid Al-Hakeem calls to establish media specialized university, use modern methods, curricula

During His Eminence's visit to the Iraqi media network, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met the head of the network, Dr. Nabeel Jassim, and several Directors of its directorates on 3/7/2023, reviewing the Iraqi reality and the challenges it faced since the change and misreading the Iraqi experience, indicating that there are variously internal and external motives that sought to destroy the Iraqi experience in its early days while calling for the establishment of the media university according to modern curricula commensurate with the development in this field.

His Eminence pointed out that Iraq was subjected to a huge media machine that circulated the negatives and obscured the positives, expressing regret that some elites, competencies, and even political powers fell victim to this attack, stressing that the battle with ISIS was an important station to expose the falsity of allegations and to rally everyone around their national project and the size of the achievement achieved by rooting the Iraqi democratic experience.

H.E. stressed that Iraq has overcome differences, problems, and political and social stampede, indicating that Iraq is living in an unprecedented state of harmony and has overcome social problems in a short period.

H.E. pointed out that the State Running Coalition is one of the sources of development and political stability in addition to the urban and developmental movement throughout Iraq, indicating that the reading of neighboring countries and the region has changed a lot and everyone is looking at the Iraqi experience with admiration.

Sayyid Al-Hakeem held the media responsible for dismantling the issues and clarifying the facts to the public, calling on the network and its employees to take responsibility for this, and also called for the establishment of a media university with modern curricula and reading of the media, pointing out the importance of the media in the next stage.

H.E. stressed spreading positivity and optimism and urged the establishment of an economic Channel specialized in reconstruction and projects and to be the window of Iraq for investors at home and abroad.

H.E. also stressed the importance of Iraqi drama in marketing Iraqi achievements and the positives of Iraqi society, calling for the establishment of a media city for Iraqi drama and embracing, supporting, and empowering the Iraqi artist.
