

Sayyid Al-Hakeem stresses connecting people to Mahdi's Cause, extension of Hussein's Cause

At the second conference of the Maids of the Hussein Platform within the women's organizations of Al-Hikma National Movement, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, stressed the importance of the Hussein cause and the victory of the Hussein project on Saturday, 8/7/2023.

His Eminence stressed the importance of dealing with the Hussein cause on the principle of narration and know-how and the importance of examining the sources of narrations. The clarity of the Hussein Cause makes it unnecessary to infer stories with no origin.

His Eminence stressed that Al-Taff Battle and the Hussein cause are lessons that increase people's knowledge and pointed out that Al-Hussein's "PBUH" is not a historical cause, yet a stance for every time and place. In addition, H.E. called to link the necessary social treatments with the Hussein Cause, as following the Hussein Approach "PBUH" is a position that is recorded with Al-Hussein outside of time.

His Eminence called to prepare for Hussein lectures and the importance of the owner of the platform being of research and study, as H.E. proposed the opening of Hussein councils by stating matters of Sharia and fatwa of the great references.

His Eminence also stressed connecting the public with the Mahdist Cause as an extension of and complement to the Hussein Cause and also called for connecting people with the Religious Reference, defending it, and urging people to be positive, optimistic, and interested in public affairs.
