

Sayyid Al-Hakeem calls young people to consciously and actively participate in upcoming elections

At the host of Al-Fatla Clan, in the hospitality of our generous brother, Sheik Hadi Al-Fatlawi, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met with Sheiks, dignitaries, and competencies of Baghdad Al-Jadeeda region On 13/7/2023, recalling that spotless history of AL-Fatla clan and its presence in the Iraqi scene since the struggle against the occupation, where we stood at the biography of the late Mujahid Sheikh Abdul Wahid Al Sakir, "may Allah have mercy on him," indicating that Baghdad Al-Jadeeda is one of the regions of Iraq in embracing and nurturing Iraqi diversity, stressing that diversity is one of the strengths of Iraq, and calling for its proper management through the social weight and cultural enrichment of each component of Iraqi society.

His Eminence also called to contemplate the new Iraqi society statistics issued by the Ministry of Planning, which showed that the proportions of young people are increasing, which puts us against a challenge and an opportunity to invest these energies, stressing that Al-Hikma Movement was one of the first to alert the nature of the Iraqi youth society and calling to invest, embrace, and empower them, and also showed that embracing and caring for young people is insurance and immunization for society.

H.E. pointed out that the Iraqis paid a tax for internal and external agendas that differed in orientation, but agreed on the content of weakening Iraq and targeting its new political experience, indicating that Iraq overcame the security problem and confronted ISIS with the blessing of the fatwa of the Supreme Religious Authority and the unity of the Iraqi tribes. H.E. also praised the state of social harmony and its return to its normal state.

Politically, His Eminence said that the most important development in the political scene is the ability to manage disagreement and agree on a mechanism for this, and one of the endorsements of this mechanism is to leave the state of political disharmony, bickering and defamation via satellite TV, indicating that the next challenge is economic in how to manage the country's resources and serve its people, stressing that the career progression of the Prime Minister and his interest in the service side calls for optimism in his success to achieve this. H.E. also stressed the spread of positivity and the departure of the language of negative generalization.

Elections-wise, H.E. called for active and conscious participation in the elections and choosing the competent, the honest, with the know-how, knowledge, and fear for his homeland people and his area. Indicating the importance of serving Baghdad Al-Jadeeda in the fields of municipality and electricity. H.E. also stressed the importance of updating the voter's biometric card and urged young people to participate in the elections as an expression of patriotism and belonging, while stressing that local elections are important for the financial opportunities provided by the budget, including the food security law, in addition to its role in consolidating administrative decentralization stipulated by the Constitution