

Sayyid Al-Hakeem renews the burning of a copy of the Holy Quran incident condemnation

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met with the representative of the President of the Islamic Republic of Iran, His Eminence Sheikh Mohammad Haji Dulabi, and exchanged condolences with him on the occasion of the month of Muharram and views on the developments of the political scene in the region and bilateral relations between Iraq and Iran, especially the dues of the Ashura and the 40th visits of Imam Al-Hussein.

Calling for the perpetuation of relationships and coordination of positions.

His Eminence stressed the need for stability in the region as a prelude to the stability and well-being of its people. H.E. praised the rapprochement between Tehran and the Gulf countries, indicating that this rapprochement reflects a desire to manage differences in preparation for ending them.

Sayyid Al-Hakeem reiterated the condemnation of the incident of burning a copy of the Holy Quran in Sweden and Denmark, stressing that this falls within the targeting of world peace and indifference to the feelings of two billion Muslims, also calling on the countries that allow these acts to review their positions, freedom of expression, and personal freedom ends when it intersects with the freedom and feelings of others.
