

Sayyid Al-Hakeem Explores Increasing Participation Rate, Discusses Upcoming Dues with Sheikh Al-Khazali

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, the head of Al-Hikma National Movement, engaged in discussions on August 7, 2023, with His Eminence Sheikh Qais Al-Khazali, the Secretary-General of the Asa'ib Ahl Al-Haq movement, and a number of leaders from the National Al-Sanad Gathering including Mr. Ahmed Al-Asadi, Mr. Abu Alaa, and Sheikh Haider Al-Gharawi. The discussions covered the political developments in Iraq and ways to support the government in implementing its governmental program.

The importance of coordinating positions to enhance political, social, and security stability in the country was affirmed, as well as the significance of utilizing the current legislative period to pass essential and vital laws and the necessity of finding solutions to economic and security challenges.

Sayyid Al-Hakeem further underscored the importance of addressing the water crisis in a manner that ensures a fair distribution of this resource among all segments of society. The discussions also emphasized the need for effective coordination during the election campaign period to ensure a stable political environment that contributes to raising the rate of popular participation and organizing the electoral competition efficiently.
