Sayyid Al-Hakeem Discusses Regional Affairs with Egyptian Foreign Minister, Reaffirms Palestinian Displacement Rejection

During His Eminence's visit to the Arab Republic of Egypt, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers’ Alliance, met with His Excellency Dr. Badr Abdel Aty, Egypt’s Minister of Foreign Affairs. His Eminence reiterated a firm rejection of all attempts to displace the Palestinian people and violate their rights, reaffirming support for Egypt’s significant efforts in countering such attempts. H.E. also urged the international community to uphold justice and support the establishment of a Palestinian state with Al-Quds Al-Sharif as its capital.

On bilateral relations, H.E. commended the steady progress in ties between the two brotherly nations and called for further efforts to strengthen this historic relationship through enhanced coordination, particularly within regional and international organizations. Such collaboration, H.E. noted, would reinforce unified Arab decision-making and create opportunities amid rapidly evolving global dynamics.

Regionally, H.E. and the Egyptian Foreign Minister reaffirmed their shared commitment to Syria’s security and stability, emphasizing the Syrian people's right to determine their future and achieve prosperity. His Eminence also condemned israeli aggressions against Syria and called for decisive international action to safeguard Syrian sovereignty.

H.E. praised Egypt’s diplomatic efforts in fostering dialogue among regional actors, addressing critical issues, and pursuing solutions based on the principles of national sovereignty and people’s right to a dignified life.

Regarding Iraq, H.E. highlighted the country’s ongoing recovery and political, social, security, and service-sector stability, commending the Iraqi government’s role in enhancing infrastructure and public services.
