Sayyid Al-Hakeem Receives Sheikh Qais Al-Khazali in His Office

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers Alliance, received Sheikh Qais Al-Khazali, Secretary-General of Asa'ib Ahl Al-Haq, in his office. The two exchanged congratulations on the occasion of the holy month of Ramadan.

The meeting included discussions on political developments in Iraq and the region. Sayyid Al-Hakeem reiterated the importance of maintaining the stability achieved across political, security, and social levels, as well as preserving Iraq’s regional and international role.

Sayyid Al-Hakeem also emphasized the need to reject inflammatory rhetoric, stressing that the stability attained is a result of the sacrifices made by Iraqis from all components. Furthermore, H.E. highlighted the role of the Coordination Framework in the political landscape, considering it a key part of the State Administration Coalition.

At the conclusion of the meeting, H.E. underscored the importance of passing essential legislation that contributes to improving public services.
