Sayyid Al-Hakeem Calls to Update Islamic Discourse, Care for Religious Rites, Social Events

His Eminence Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, received the Head of the Islamic Unity Party, Sheikh Mohammed Mohaqiq, and discussed with him the state of Islamic discourse in the coming phase, and the role of Islamic political forces in preserving the gains achieved for their peoples.

H.E. affirmed the importance of unifying Islamic discourse and updating its mechanisms, pointing to the importance of caring for social events and religious rites, noting that the Arbaeen pilgrimage was the most important occasion, and commending the participation of the Afghan people in it.