Sayyid Al-Hakeem: Public Interest Over Private, Temporary Interests, Method to Overcome Challenges

H.E. Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance and Leader of Al-Hikma National Movement, met with a large gathering of organizational leadership in Wasit Governorate, noting the importance of this governorate given its central location in Iraq and its historic relationship with the family of Imam Al-Hakeem (may his soul be sanctified), explaining that the bond of the movement's project takes precedence even over ties of kinship.

H.E. extended his congratulations to them on the Prophet's noble birth (peace be upon him and his family) and the birth of Imam Al-Sadiq (PBUH), while offering his condolences on the anniversary of the martyrdom of Shaheed Al-Mihrab (may his soul be sanctified), calling for emulating Prophet Mohammed (PBUH) and how he confronted objections and social challenges, prioritizing the public interest over private or short-term interests, citing the conquest of Mecca and how Prophet Mohammed (PBUH) dealt with his enemies, moving beyond any impulse for vengeance toward spreading his prophetic message worldwide.

H.E. affirmed that influential projects face greater targeting, and that anyone with influence becomes a target, calling for dispelling doubts before the public, noting that some people are simply confused due to disinformation, while others act with deliberate agendas, stressing the need to focus on the former group, on the condition of taking pride in the project and its symbols, along with the importance of displaying and openly declaring movement identity, and moving from the stage of outreach to the stage of influence.
